

Research Assistant I (Ref: 2300800)
Centre for Psychosocial Health

Project Title: Life and Career Development Across the Life Span: A Pathway to Enhance Urban Resilience in Hong Kong for Post-Covid Era

[Appointment Period: 12 months]

The appointee will support the project named “Life and Career Development Across the Life Span: A Pathway to Enhance Urban Resilience in Hong Kong for Post-Covid Era.” This multidisciplinary and collaborative project aims to develop capacity to pursue a larger research on life and career development in Hong Kong in the post-COVID era. The appointee is required to provide administrative and operational support to carry out the project. He/she will be responsible for conducting literature review, developing research materials, assisting in the coordination and administrative work of the project, supporting data collection and data analysis, writing papers for conference and manuscripts, writing reports, and performing any other duties as assigned by the project team. The appointment will be 12 months with the possibility of renewal subject to review.

Applicants should have a relevant Bachelor’s Degree in psychology, sociology, public health, data science, quantitative social science, or a related discipline with strong interpersonal and communication skills, good command of both written and spoken English and Chinese (including Cantonese), self-motivation, and the ability to work independently, preferably with some experience in supporting research and training programmes.

For further enquiries about the post, please contact: Prof. Stephen Chiu (stephenwkchiu@eduhk.hk) or Dr. Wai-Kai Hou (wkhhou@eduhk.hk).

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract. Fringe benefits include contract-end gratuity, leave, medical and dental benefits.

The University only accepts and considers applications submitted online for this post. Applicants should complete the online application form and upload a full CV. Review of applications will start from 14 August 2023, and will continue until the post is filled. Applications which are incomplete or without the required documents may not be considered. Personal data provided by applicants will be used for recruitment and other employment-related purposes. For details of the Personal Information Collection Statement, please refer to <http://www.eduhk.hk/jobsopp/index.php?glang=en>.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. Only those who are shortlisted will be contacted. The University reserves the right not to fill the position(s) advertised. Since the incumbent’s work would involve contacts with persons aged under 18 and/or mentally incapacitated persons, prospective employee(s) will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check operated by the Hong Kong Police Force.

Further information about the University is available at <http://www.eduhk.hk>.

EdUHK is an Equal Opportunities Employer.