

Lecturer I (Two Posts) (Ref: 2500409)
Department of Special Education and Counselling
Faculty of Education and Human Development

The Department is now seeking qualified and highly dedicated persons to assist in teaching and support for teaching professional development courses for students with special educational needs for project named “Provision of Services for the Basic, Advanced and/or Thematic Courses for Teacher Professional Development on Catering for Students with Special Educational Needs for the 2024/25, 2025/26 and 2026/27 School Years”.

The appointee(s) will participate in online and/or in-person activities related to teaching; research projects for knowledge transfer; curriculum and programme development; development of teaching and learning materials; practicum supervision and programme and course management. Field work may also be required.

For the post of Lecturer I, applicants should have at least Master’s degree or preferably a doctoral degree, which is preferably in psychology or special education or a relevant subject discipline, plus a minimum of 4 years’ relevant post-qualification teaching experience in special education.

Applicants should preferably possess a relevant professional teaching certificate, e.g. PGDE or qualification of Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) recognized by the Education Bureau of Hong Kong or other qualification of equivalence, demonstrate ability in the use of IT in SEN support and provide proven evidence of quality teaching and/or successful record of relevant professional/clinical experience, at primary/ secondary and or tertiary level. Applicants with frontline teaching experience in supporting students with SEN in ordinary or special school setting OR teaching experience related to special education at the tertiary level OR teacher training experience in special education will have an added advantage. Significant contributions in curriculum development, teacher development and/or clinical support in special education or psychology would be desirable. Experience in e-learning and e-teaching is also desirable.
